

Q.1. Why does the poet call Macavity, a mystery cat?

Ans. The poet calls Macavity a mystery cat because of it's hidden, It can defy the law of its master.

Q.2. What are the adjectives that have been used to describe Macavity's character?

Ans. The adjectives that have been used to describe Macavity's character are as following: like, tall, thin, deep. and wide.

Q.3. Why is Macavity termed a "Criminal"

Ans. Macavity is termed as a criminal because he can defey the law of the master.

Q.4. What is suggested by the phrase 'power of levitation'

Ans. The phrase 'power of levitation would make a fakir stare for the mysterious cat Macavity.

Q.5. What would you do if a cat enters your kitchen? Would you keep a cat as pet?

Ans. If a cat enters in my kitchen I will an it away. No, I would not keep a cat as pet.

LONG ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS

Q. 1. Discuss the poet's impression of Macavity, the msytery cat. Why does he call it mysterious.

Ans. The poet T.S. Eliot who composed this poem the mystery cat. The cat is too good for the poet. The poet's impression of Macavity's the mystery cat is very fine he calls it mysterious because of its activeness. His power of levitation would make a fakir stare and when he reached the secene of crime- Macavity's does not present there that's why the poet calls it mysterious.

Q. 2. Macavity is never there "Elaborate."

Ans. Macavity is never there in this line the poet T.S Eliot wants to say that whenever a crime is happen anywhere related with Macavity doesn't present there. His burrow is deeply lined with thoughts, his head is highly domed. It can go anywhere does anything. It can also seek in the basement and in the air. But when you will go there, you won't find Macavity there.

Q.3. Why does the poet call Macavity outwardly respectable? Discuss.

Ans. The poet calls Macavity outwardly respectable due to its activity. Whatever its crimes, it never leaves any type of clue in the house. It cheats at cards. When the larder's

Q.4. There are other cats like Mungojerrie and Griddlebone, but there's no one like Macavity' Explain.

Ans. Macavity is a clever cat. It always does crime but never be there where he crimes. He cheats at cards and his footprints are not found in any file of Scotland Yard's and when the larder looted, or the jewel-case is rifled, this type of crime he does but never present there so that the poet tells that other cats like Mungojerrie and Griddlebone but there's no one like Macavity.

Q.5. Make a list of crimes Macavity is capable of.

Ans. The list of crimes done by Macavity is capable of are as following He looted jewels...case, milk, scrap the paper, green glass is broken larder's looted, another peke's been stifled, It does a lot of things that the poet tell in this poem.

Q.6. What would you do to tame Macavity?

Ans. First up all I would like to keep such a tame cat who does not do this type of crime as it does in poet's house. It should be gentle. It doesn't harm to anyone and also doesnot crime. I will teach Macavity a lesson not to do like this.