

Q. 1. Who is the speaker of this poem?

Ans. Walt Whitman is the speaker of this poem.

Q. 2. How old is he?

Ans. He is thirteen-7 years old.

Q.3. Why does the speaker use 'you' twice?

Ans. The speaker uses 'you' twice because good belongs to you.

Q.4. What is meant by 'Nature without check with original energy'?

Ans. Harbour and Hazard is meant by Nature without check with original energy.

Q. 5. What is the theme of the poem ?

Ans. The theme of the poem is about.

Q.6. How does the speaker establish relation between 'me' and 'you' ?

Ans. The speaker establishes the relation between 'me' and 'you' belongs to goodness and happiness.

Q.7. How did he observe in summer?

Ans. He observes a spear in summer.

Q.8. What has formed the speaker's blood?

Ans. The soil, the air and the birth place where he was born has formed the speaker's blood.

Q.9. What does he hope to do?

Ans. He hopes to do the work which he wants to work not till death.

Q. 10. What does he want to do with creeds?

Ans. He wants to do known about the system of thoughts with creeds.

LONG ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS

1. Give a summary of the poem.

Ans. See Summary.

Q.2. What similarities does the poet draw two human beings.

Ans. The poet 'walt whitman' tell something about two human beings that how they are similar to one another. Only those people who makes caste and also they who believes castism. They quarrel for the caste and religion. The poet want to say that both the human beings are same as many ways as they born same as their parents born. Their blood is same Everything is same in both human beings as for two eyes, two ears two legs, two hands and a noise to breathe.

There are so many that show the two human beings are same still they quarrel among themselves.

Q.3. Explain the line 'Hoping to cease not till death'.

Ans. The line 'Hoping to cease not till death' means the poet walt whiteman doesnot want to die till death. He knows that there are peoples who quarreled for the religions. He has hope that if he religions. He has hope that if he try he would change the situation. He would like to stop those persons. There are big thoughts of religious belief in his mind. So he says the line hoping to cease not till death.

Q. 4. Why does the poet not want to bother himself with "Creeds and schools."

Ans. The poet does not want to bother himself with "Creeds and schools" because he never quarrel to think about religious tolerance. His mind is quite like this problems. He knows everything that there are so religion and caste in the world still he doesnot bother from it. He knows that everyone is same in all condition. They birth as same as parents. Their blood is same as another one's blood.

Q.5. Comment on the subjectivism (Personal feeling) in the poem ?

Ans. The poem "song of myself" is composed by the poet walt whitman. He tells about himself in this poem. He never thin any thing wrong and religion. He become very sad when he see a human being quarrel another human being only for religion white there is nothing to quarrel in things. He feels like a spike which gives pain as that human beings also him pain when he listen about quarreled for religion.