

Q. 1. How did passers by get frightened?

Ans. Passer by got frightened to see the fire at the ghat.

Q. 2. Which event does the expression 'the burning ghat' refer to ?

Ans. The expression "the burning ghat refers to that place where holypeople used to worship.

Q.3. Where do you think is the ghat located?

Ans. The ghat is located at down past river bank.

Q.4. What does the speaker see/observe in the morning at the ghat.

Ans. The speaker observes the fire in the morning at the ghat.

Q.5. Why does he say that the redness of the fire is cruel ?

Ans. He say that the redness of the fire is cruel due to it because it swallowed to everyone.

Q. 6. In what sense does the fire forget its dead?

Ans. The fire forgets it's dead when fire, fires at a time. It fires the ghats.

Q. 7. What did the firm hymn say to him?

Ans. The firm hymn said to him to stand forgiven because broken yet rebellious.

LONG ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS

Q. 1. What are the different forms and roles of fire at the ghat?

Ans. The different forms and roles of fire at the ghat are different which is following.

- as a red light which is all covered to the sky.
- as a black smoke which swallows everything of the sky and there.

- It's lighting as a thunder. These all are the forms of fire which happened at the Ghats.

Q.2. How does the ghat appear to the common people?

Ans. The ghat appears a red ball which is rounded as the ghats, to the common people smokes swallows everything which were there. Everything was burnt and animals were burnt too but some animals only half cooked. At last only ash was round the ghats.

Q.3. What is the fire's debauchery?

Ans. The fire's debauchery is a system of fire which can easily destroy anything when it fires first it gives light but later it emits only smoke which or man effected by it. At last only ash were there where it fires.

Q.4. What has offended the religious sentiment of the speaker when he was a child?

Ans. When the speaker was a child the fire caught a ghat and from that the speaker's father also caught in the fire. To save him the poet go to religious sentiments.

Q. 5. Why do you think the speaker consigned his first born to the flames.

Ans. The poet was child when the fire caughts in ghat consigned his first born to the flames. He who first show the flames from his birth the nearest tower of silence was thousands of miles to be safe from the fire which caught in ghats.

Q. 6. Why was the speaker 'broken' and how did he regard himself rebellious?

Ans. The speaker 'broken' the law of religion which did not want to break but the speaker did mistake. He regarded himself rebellious to stand forgiven. he swore this time to save it from the sin of forgiving.

Q.7. Why did he swear twice to save the fire from two different sins?

Ans. When the speaker was child, his his fingers clenched which a little knot of pain he did mistake. It was the first sin and secondore is when he broke the law of religious. For the first the sin of forgetfulness and for the second to save it from the sin of forgiving.