

SHORT ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS

Q. 1. Who are depicted as friends in the first two lines?

Ans. Seasons of mist and the maturing sun are depicted as friends in the first two lines.

Q.2. What happens in autumn?

Ans. All fruits get ripeness in autumn and also all the birds start to sing to see this season.

Q.3. In what sense does the sun conspire with autumn?

Ans. The sun conspires with the autumn so slightly and as a friend. Its ray makes the fruit fleshy and fat and also tasty.

Q.4. How do the sun and summer help in ripeness of fruits in autumn?

Ans. The sun and summer help in ripeness of fruits in autumn. They filled so much that some sills over the fruit and blowing a current of air to remove its outer covering.

Q.5. How are autumn and summer related to spring?

Ans. Autumn and summer are related to spring in the way of ripeness of fruits.

LONG ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS

Q. 1. What is the central idea of the poem ?

Ans. The poet John Keats has written this poem 'Ode to Autumn' a very wonderful poem. He says about the season of different kinds happens in the world. All seasons are of different kinds and of different activities. Every people like different season. Summer brings hot and sweetest fruit. Some people like Autumn because it is a good season and people can do easily a work in this season.

Q. 2. Does the poet convey his love to nature through such lines as given above? If yes give examples.

Ans. Yes the poet conveys his love to nature through such lines. For summer has O'er brimmed their clammy cells. Who hath not seen thee oft amid thy store? Sometimes whoever. Seeks abroad may find.

As a season show poet show his conveys of love through the nature. It always help him to conveys love.

Q.3. What do autumn and spring symbolize in the poem explain.

Ans. Autumn and spring both the season are good for fruits of mellow fruitfulness. in the poem. It fill all fruit with ripeness to the core to swell the gourd, and plump the hazel shells.

Q. 4. Do you like this poem? Give two reasons?

Ans. Yes, I like this poem. It shows the good relationship between two seasons and also show about the seasons that how dependable they are to each other.

Second one is it shows human beings also that how should live them to each other without any reason.

Q. 5. What does the poet say about the music of autumn? Do you like music?

Ans. The poet say about the music of autumn that when it starts to sing the beautiful birds came as a Nightingale, and cuckoo sing a very beautiful voice. It makes everyone happy to their life. Its make a person perfect and the trees, when it listen to it, came out to grow.

Yes I like the music.