

Short Question answer

Q. 1. Is the speaker afraid of death?

Ans. No, the speaker is not afraid of death. He is just laughing to see his death.

Q. 2. If at all he dies in the battle, how would he like to be remembered?

Ans. If at all he dies in the battle, he would like to be remembered as unforgettable soldier who never fears of death.

Q.3. How can 'some corner of a foreign field' be for ever England?

Ans. When the war starts the dust of the earth hid corner of a foreign field. In this way a part of a corner will be for ever of England.

Q.4. In that rich earth a richer dust concealed. What does 'dust' stand for?

Ans. In that rich earth a richer dust concealed'. Here dust stands for those who avoid war and wanted to live a peaceful life. He never quarrelled for anything.

Q.5. What is meant by the phrase 'A pulse in the internal mind' ?

Ans. The phrase 'A pulse in the internal mind' is meant by the evil which always come in mind in negative way. The poet want to say that there must be a pulse in the internal mind which works to avoid war.

LONG ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS

Q.1. Do you think that the title of the poem is appropriate ? Give reasons?

Ans. Yes the title of the poem is appropriate. Because a soldier is saying that when he will die he should have a corner of the field of the country England. it doesn't think about the people who never obyes others.

Q.2. Discuss the main ideas contained in the first eight lines, i e, octave.

Ans. The poet Rupert Brooke tells that he thinks only about himself; if he die. He should want a corner of the field of England and when the war will start the dust swallow everything which war there. The dust bore and her ways to roam. Everything is waded by the rivers.

Q.3. What do you understand by patriotism. Is this a patriotic poem ?

Discuss.

Ans. Patriotism means, a love for its country. A man who can do anything for the country. To free, he does a fight and that fight is called as patriotism.

Yes this poem is a patriotic poem, from which poet want to say.

Q.4. Summarise the poem in your own words.

Ans. See Summary.

Q.5. How many times does the poet use 'England' in the poem ? What does it show.

Ans. In the poem the poet use England four times. It shows the country's love the poet wants to say that a man who love his country most can die for his country. England is poet's mother country which he like most.

Q.6. How can you show that you love your country?

Ans. I use to talk with a politely voice. I'll never quarrel for the caste religion and religious festival. I will help those who are helpless. I always use to serve my country.

In this way I can show my love to my country.